Introduction of Multicultural Volunteer (13)

My name is Pham Van Thuy. Currently, I run a Vietnamese restaurant "Vietnam Smile" near Yokohamabashi shopping street. Japan is a disciplined and safe country that gives you the opportunity to improve your various skills. Sometimes I get tired of the pressure of work and the fast speed of life, but the accumulation of those days makes me more mature. One of the activities that I find particularly meaningful is volunteering as an interpret and translate. I translate necessary information such as event flyer and living guides for the Vietnamese community living in Japan. This activity not only improves my language skills, but also provides an opportunity to connect with many people and understand and support their concerns and situations. Although it is a small contribution, Vietnamese people living in Japan can live with peace of mind and confidence, I would be happy I could help them.

Mr. Pham Van Thuy
