What is Part-time (Teiji-sei) High School ?

When you think about high school, you might first consider about full-time high school.

However you can also enjoy high school life with part-time (teiji-sei) high school.

Let's study about part-time (teiji-sei) high school!

There are 5 types :

- Evening school : The school will start around 17:30 and finish around 21:00. (4hours of study)
- Special time : ① Part-time study in the noon time →School will start and finish in the day time.
(similar to full-timehigh school.)
② Flexible school → The school will study in the noon time and also in the evening time.
- Multi-system : Class held on Morning・Afternoon time
- 3 part-system : Class held on Morning・Afternoon・Evening time
- 2 part-system : Class held on Afternoon・Evening time

Studying contents are same with the full-time high school. The graduation status is also same! You would need 74 units or more (depends on the school). There are student council, homeroom and club activities. Some school holds culture festival with the full-time students!!! The only difference is the time the school starts and the term you need (4years) to get the graduation status. However there are part-time high school where you can graduate in 3 years (if you fulfill certain terms). So, visit and collect information about the high school you are interested !

The festival was crowded with visitors. The visitors were not only Japanese, there were worldwide visitors such as Chinese, Korean, Filipino, Indian and others. We appreciate very much for the participants, i.e. the friends with the citizens' activity groups, the teachers of the neighborhood (Machi-no-Sensei), and voluntary supporters of foreigners ♪
